Description

A canopy or an umbrella? The SAKOSI collection evokes such associations at first glance. All thanks to the original lampshade that decorates the lamps in this series. Despite the fact that the luminaire may seem austere, it allows you to create a comfortable and warm atmosphere in the interior. Delicate and subtle light will add elegance and character to any space, emphasizing the qualities of other elements of the arrangement. The SAKOSI collection by UMMO was designed for customers who value minimalism and original design. In the series you will find sconces as well as hanging and table lamps in two color versions: black or white. Bet on a minimalist lamp with a lampshade from the SAKOSI collection, and your interior will not be afraid of any rain.
