Description

Design Description

The SUPURU W lamp combines minimalist aesthetics with subtle references to Japanese tradition. It features in recipients who appreciate minimalism, tranquility, conscious choice and an aesthetic that balances between Japandi and modernism. The name Supuru is a phonetic metaphor for silence and light - which is what a well-designed luminaire creates. Two dome-shaped lampshades sit one above the other on a slender stem. Its form is reminiscent of the classic lanterns that adorn temple alleys. This harmonious composition combines simplicity of form with deep roots in culture.

The name "SUPURU" can be interpreted as a phonetic reference to the Japanese word "subaru," which means "unification" or "gathering." This reference emphasizes the idea of harmony and unity conveyed by the lamp's design.

Lamp components and functionality

The body of the lamp is made of metal in colors from the UMMO palette (white RAL 9003, black RAL 9005, yellow RAL 1016, melon RAL 1028, pink RAL 3014, red-orange RAL 2002, burgundy RAL 3004, navy blue RAL 5003, blue RAL 5014, olive RAL 6013, beige), which gives it an elegant and universal character. The delicate tube connecting the lampshades adds a subtle touch, emphasizing its sophisticated design. The dimensions of the wall lamp are: 19 x 11 x 23,3 cm.

The lamp is equipped with a GU10 type light source. SUPURU W will prove itself both as accent lighting and functional lighting. The wall lamp has an adjustable angle of the shade, so you can direct the light exactly where you need it and allows you to precisely direct the light stream. Thus, you can easily adjust the lighting to your specific needs - whether as a task light for reading, a decorative accent point, or discreet illumination of a selected area of the interior.

This solution combines functionality with flexibility, giving the user full control over the atmosphere in the room.
